As the Superintendent moves in the direction of including NTU representation in more decision making roles and committees, it is now more than ever of vital importance that we have a Building Rep at every location. This position should not be held by “whoever just wants it” but by someone who’s a problem solver, with good communications skills, an effective or better rating, and who will proudly represent the school staff.

What is the role of a Building Rep?

Typically the Building Rep is our go-between to ensure that the contract is being followed at each school. The Rep would create a Building Committee to assist in their work, representative of the staff at the school. They would meet with the administrator once a month (or more, as needed) to discuss the issues at the school. The Rep would also be expected to be at our monthly meeting here at the NTU office and to hold monthly meetings with the staff at their building (usually piggybacked after faculty meetings) to discuss potential issues and solutions. You would get an extra prep period a week purely for "union work."

Next steps?

If you are in a school without a Building Rep now is the time to get together, start vetting yourselves and call for an election in your building. Take time during your next faculty meeting to discuss this issue together. Attached are the expectations and roles for a Building Rep, and below are the list of schools that currently do not have a Union Rep. If you would be interested, send an email to mmaillaro@newarkteachersunion.com and mio-vino@newarkteachersunion.com.

Enjoy the three-day weekend!

Under New Jersey code, staff move up their increments based on their hire date. Staff hired on or between March 1 through October 15 receive their increment at the beginning of each school year (staff would not move up a step in September of the year they were hired).

Staff hired on or between October 16th and the last day of February receive their increment on February 1 each school year.

This year, February 1 fell exactly in the middle of a pay cycle. For January 27 to January 31, you would be paid at your old salary (reflected in the top of your paycheck), and from February 3 to 7, you would be paid at your new salary (reflected in your salary progression on Employee Self Service).

If you believe there was an issue with your increment, reach out to npscompensation@nps.k12.nj.us and cc: mmaillaro@newarkeatchersunion.com

RSVP to Mandates

During the Anderson administration we won an important case that insured that when a member is being asked to do work outside of their normal teaching schedule, the administrator’s must either give the staff additional time during the day OR ensure that our staff are paid after hours to do it.

If you feel you are being asked to do a mandate that you can’t possibly do in your work day, your first step should be to discuss your situation with your Building Rep and communicate with your administrator. Try and work out a solution you are both comfortable with.

If all else fails, then you would submit the below form to your administrator (if you click on it you will taken to a link on our website).

Also, if due to the substitute shortage in the district, you are being asked to cover, be sure that you are being paid for it with your school administrator, or accommodated in some other way!
Rebuttals

I cannot stress enough the importance of writing a REBUTTAL to your observation if you are dissatisfied with ANY part of it. Sometimes, you like the overall score, but don't like one of the ratings. Do NOT let that go!

You have ten work days after the receipt of your ratings via a post-observation conference to submit your rebuttal. If you do not submit a rebuttal, then you are telling your admin and NPS that you AGREE with the rating.

If your admin observes you in-between your initial observation and BEFORE your post-observation conference, then you MUST notify us immediately and ALSO immediately write a rebuttal stating that you have been observed twice in a row without getting the necessary feedback to improve.

Your rebuttal MUST include actual evidence and MUST connect directly to the ratings in the competencies. Do NOT include anecdotal stories, and do not include personal attacks or personal problems with your administrators in your rebuttal. If you believe your administrator is "out to get you," then you should document your concerns and we will help you contact Labor Relations or the Office of Affirmative Action.

We have an extensive document on how to write an effective rebuttal on our website. Click this link here to go right to it.

Rebuttals must be emailed to your admin, uploaded to your EdReflect, hardcopy delivered to your admin, and emailed to Human Resources at evaluations@nps.k12.nj.us.

NTU Website Update

Our website is still located at http://newark.nj.aft.org. Google seems to be having some issues finding the site, but it is still there. We have been in communication with Google on this issue and hope to have it resolved as soon as possible. You can still access the website through the above link, through other search engines, and through the link on our Facebook page. Sorry for any inconvenience this may cause.
